RULES ON THE USE OF COOKIES

Use of cookies and other analytical tools

By using the website www.croatiaopen.hr, you accept cookies and other analytical tools so that ISTRA D.M.C. may collect data about the use of our websites and in order to improve your online user experience on the websites owned by ISTRA D.M.C.

You can allow or decline cookies, delete existing ones and specify settings for specific websites.

What are cookies?

A cookie is a small text file that is stored on a computer or mobile device when you visit a certain website or when you open a certain e-mail.

The website uses cookies to remember your actions and settings for a certain period of time. Every time the user opens a website, the web server (ISTRA D.M.C.) can read the values previously saved in cookies.

There are various types of cookies, and they are usually classified by duration, domain to which they belong and purpose:

- Temporary (session) cookies are deleted after the user closes their browser. Permanent cookies remain stored on the user's device for a certain period of time.
- First-party cookies are defined by the server of the visited domain. Third-party cookies are defined from a different domain than the one visited by the user.
- According to their purpose, cookies may be necessary if they support the basic technical website features, functional if they improve the user experience, analytical if they analyse website use and marketing if they track the interests of individual users.

Which cookies do we use and for what purposes

The website www.croatiaopen.hr uses cookies for the following purposes:

Technical:

these cookies enhance certain technical features to ensure a positive user experience, for example storing consent that you are familiar with the Privacy Policy and the Cookie Policy;

Functional:

these cookies are used to facilitate your use of the website, for example: remembering the language in which you explore the website, etc.

Analytical:

we also use analytical cookies that enable web analytics, i.e. analysis of our website use, which we perform in order to improve the quality and content of the services offered.

Marketing:

these cookies enable us to send you certain messages, such as: offering you promotional campaigns based on your previous user experience, etc.

We especially emphasize that you have the right to stop receiving marketing cookies on the website http://www.networkadvertising.org/choices
